DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION
DOCKETS

2008 OCT 23 A 10:27

Dear Honorable Mary Peters:

American Airlines – along with British Airways, Finnair, Iberia and Royal Jordanian Airlines, its transatlantic partners in the oneworld global alliance – recently applied to receive global antitrust immunity from the U.S. Department of Transportation. Immunity would mean the five airlines will continue to operate as separate legal entities – with our own fleets, employees and brands – but would be able cooperate more closely to improve travel choices, offer more convenient schedules, and give customers more opportunities to earn and redeem frequent flyer miles

In addition to providing for more travel choices for our customers, immunity would allow oneworld to compete more effectively with SkyTeam and Star Alliance, which already enjoy broad immunity among their global-air alliance members.
